Duffy's Sky Club Set To Debut At BankAtlantic Center On Panthers Opening Night

Sky Club features sports bar food and themes – sold out on Opening Night

SUNRISE, Fla. – Sunrise Sports & Entertainment announced today that the all new Duffy's Sky Club located on the BankAtlantic Center's Sky Level will debut with a sell out on Florida Panthers Opening Night on Saturday, Oct. 15.

The Duffy's Sky Club - an extension of the marketing partnership between SSE and Duffy's Sports Grill – will feature an upscale sports lounge complete with food and beverage offerings for all Panthers games through the 2013-14 NHL season. Fans can expect The Sky Club to have extensive Plasma TVs coverage along with framed authentic hockey memorabilia similar to the décor found at the 24 Duffy's Sports Grill locations throughout Southeast coast of Florida.

“We are thrilled to partner with our wonderful partners at Duffy's Sports Grills to create this incredible new sports bar-themed fan location on the BankAtlantic Center's Sky Level,” said SSE President & COO Michael R. Yormark. “There's no better place in South Florida to catch a game or sporting event than a Duffy's Sports Grill and now, with the Duffy's Sky Club, we're bringing that experience inside the BankAtlantic Center for live Florida Panthers hockey.”

Access to Duffy's Sky Club is restricted to ticket holders. Fans can purchase season tickets or group tickets by contacting the Florida Panthers group sales department at 954.835.7211. All Duffy's Sky Club tickets include access to the club, specialty food buffet, unlimited beer, wine or soda and a seat in the BankAtlantic Center's 400 level.

“The Duffy's Sky Club is a natural extension of our comprehensive strategic marketing partnership with the Florida Panthers organization,” said Paul Emmett, President of Duffy's Sports Grill. “We are looking forward to providing Panthers fans with the opportunity to enjoy a Duffy's experience combined with the excitement of live hockey.”
